OBJECTIVE:

TO LEAD A CAREER AND LIFE OF SERVICE TO OTHERS BY EMPLOYING MY SKILL SET GAINED DURING MY 22 YEARS OF MILITARY SERVICE AND SUBSEQUENT 8 YEARS AS AN EDUCATOR IN OUR PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM, AND MOST RECENTLY AS THE MAYOR OF THE CITY OF AZTEC, NEW MEXICO.

EXPERIENCE

Mayor of Aztec, New Mexico

The Aztec Mayor is a member of the Aztec City Commission, a 5-member governing body that is the oversight body for the City Manager and City Departments/Staff. As a Manager/Commission style of government, the City Manager is the individual overseeing day to day operations. As Mayor, I am responsible for managing and running commission meetings and workshops as well as adhering to city ordinances and regulatory guidance. As a member of the governing body, we are tasked with approval of annual budgets, decisions regarding oil/gas drilling permits within our city limits, land use/zoning issues, and various fiscal items that are elevated to the level of commission. During my tenure as commissioner/Mayor, our body has voted upon more than a dozen oil/gas land use permits since March 2018.

Aztec and George Washington High School JROTC Instructor

JROTC Army Instructor from August 2012-present at two separate school districts (Aztec Municipal School District, Aztec, NM; Kanawha County Schools, Charleston, WV). The Army Instructor is a member of a two-instructor team that is certified by US Army Cadet Command to teach standardized national curriculum developed by Army Cadet Command. The curriculum covers a wide variety of various subjects including more standard military style training (drill and ceremony; color guard; uniform wear and appearance; military history, etc.) and additionally subject matter covering conflict resolution; diversity; sexual harassment; resume' writing, etc. The Army Instructor is responsible for the ordering, inventory, and issuing of approximately $30, 000.00 of issued equipment to include automation and office equipment and cadet uniforms and associated items.

United States Army National Guard Recruiting and Retention Non-Commissioned Officer

Responsible for the achievement of annual recruiting missions and quality standards of enlisted soldiers into the WV Army National Guard. Assigned a recruiting area including high schools, colleges and universities covering in excess of 2,000 square miles. Promoted to Team Leader of the Charleston, WV Recruiting Station in 2007, responsible for four senior non-commissioned officers as direct subordinates.
